Police investigating fatal industrial accident in Jessup

Howard County police are investigating a fatal industrial accident in Jessup where a man working for a concrete company died this morning.

At approximately 5:20 a.m., personnel from the Howard County Police Department and Howard County Department of Fire and Rescue Services were dispatched to Hanson Concrete Products in the 7900 block of Dorsey Run Road for a report of an industrial accident involving an adult male employee.

Upon arrival, police found the man unresponsive, trapped in a piece of heavy machinery. The employee died at the scene. He is not being identified at this time pending notification of next of kin.

The accident remains under investigation by the Howard County Police Department and Maryland Occupational Safety and Health Agency (MOSHA).
